ROUND TABLE

At the October meeting, Round Table welcomed the following new members, elected on the basis of scholarship standing: Joseph A. Andrews, Nathaniel M. Astrinsky, Joseph Boucek, Louis Brown, Joseph E. Brunswick, Orel Z. Burdick, James R. Courtney, Eugene O. Donnelly, Gerald Fearer, Marion J. Fry, Joseph D. Gannon, Frank R. Howard, George E. Hall, Jr., W. Walton Hall, Mrs. E. A. Johnson, Elias A. Johnson, Reuben Kolkey, Mrs. K. W. Munsert, Kenneth W. Munsert, James B. O'Shaughnessy, B. H. Quackenbush, Lester G. Richman, William A. Simon, Arthur N. Thyfault, John D. Vosnos, Wilbert J. J. Wahler.

At that meeting, Mr. M. O. Block was the speaker and told of the advantage of having a knowledge of accounting to complement legal training.

The speaker at the November meeting was John D. Black, President of the Chicago Bar Association, who spoke of the development of the Federal Employer's Liability Acts and their effect today.

At the December meeting, Dr. Harry Hoffman, head of the Behavior Clinic, spoke of the work of the Clinic and its relation to the administration of justice in criminal cases.

ALPHA SIGMA IOTA

The establishment of a scholarship fund for needy fraternity brothers from the proceeds of a dance held December 3, 1933, at the Congress Hotel, is the fraternity's most notable achievement this semester. Joseph Spielberger, Erwin Glickman, Samuel T. Cohen, Joseph A. Benson, Louis A. Nisenbaum, Arthur S. Gomburg, Leo B. Fisher, George Saltzman, and Bernard S. Gould, have pledged themselves for membership.

A series of legal lectures is being instituted by the alumni.

DELTA THETA PHI

We are proud and happy to report the successes in the July, 1933, bar examination of Brothers Roy Worth, Peter Fitzpatrick and Richard Walter. Brothers Phillip Anderson and Henry Krueger added to the honor of Webster Senate by passing the November examination.

It was our privilege on December 16 to welcome into the fraternity James P. Hackett, Jr., Emil R. Anderson, and Marvin

E. Johnson. An excellent dinner was attended at the Bismarck Hotel following the initiation. Everyone present will long remember the stirring address by Brother Judge John Gutknecht.

We are receiving valuable counsel and aid from several of our loyal alumni members and wish to take this opportunity of publicly expressing our appreciation. Special mention is due Brothers Robert E. Burke, A. O. Ramlose, and Roger L. Severns.

PHI DELTA PHI

Fuller Inn is pleased to announce the pledging of the following men: J. H. Adams, P. J. Chittenden, G. E. Hall, G. R. Keller, L. B. Knight, J. R. Lenfesty, H. MacDonald, P. E. Matthews, E. L. Moore, O. P. Nuffer, J. F. Sokal, A. N. Thyfault, R. F. Webster, C. R. Weinrich, and L. Whidden.

The Inn is utilizing its smokers not only for social contacts but also for presenting information relative to the legal profession and the relation between Phi Delta Phi and the profession through talks and discussions.

The activities of the Inn thus far this year make it reasonable to anticipate that this year will be a most successful one.

DELTA CHI

Chicago-Kent Chapter of Delta Chi announces the initiation of John O'Shaughnessy; the pledging of John Ryan, W. J. Keefer, and William Ramsey; and the affiliation of Brother Bjork from the University of Illinois chapter. Illness forced Pledge Ramsey to drop out of school this semester, but he is expected to return in February.

It gives the chapter a great deal of pleasure to announce the re-election of Brother John K. Monahan, to the office of "BB." He has been particularly successful in getting the older alumni out during the past year, and it is the desire of the chapter that he continue the good work.

Brother Emmet T. Gallagher has been elected chancellor of the exchequer, and he is continually taking the boys over the bounding main. Through his untiring efforts, the chapter is now on a sound financial basis. A man who can do this during these times deserves a lot of credit.

The Chicago-Kent Chapter, in conjunction with a hundred or more Chicago alumni, celebrated the forty-third anniversary of its founding at a banquet held at the Stevens Hotel. Many prominent members of the judiciary as well as business leaders spoke.

KAPPA BETA PI

Alpha Chapter held its first meeting of the year on September 9, 1933, at the home of Bertha Carlson. The report of the Biennial International Convention of Kappa Beta Pi held in Chicago this summer was ably presented by Anne G. Carter, Alpha's delegate, and the following were elected as officers for the ensuing year: Agnes M. Kasper, Dean; Anne G. Carter, Associate Dean; Lucille B. Even, Registrar; Ellen H. Dearmont, Chancellor; and Ethel Gustafson, Marshal. The Board of Directors is to consist of Doris J. Flagg, Chairman, and Sara Liebenson Kamin and Isabel Weldon.

These officers were installed on October 14 at the home of Sara Liebenson Kamin, at which time Alpha was honored by the presence of its National Grand Dean, Miss Evangeline Hursen, who graciously consented to preside and read the installation service.

At its November meeting, held at the home of Doris J. Flagg, the women of the freshmen class at Kent were entertained. It is gratifying to Alpha to note the number of women entering upon the study of law.

We have begun a plan for bringing back those members who, although continuing to render financial assistance, have for some reason discontinued attending the meetings.

On December 15, Kappa Beta Pi International Legal Sorority celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of its founding at Chicago-Kent College of Law in Chicago.

With a deep sense of loss and heartfelt grief, Alpha records the death of Dr. Mary E. Davenport, 1921, and extends to her family its sincere sympathy.

NU BETA EPSILON

We are proud to announce that Michael Gilbert, Bernard Goldberg, Jack Green, Morris Kaplan, and Robert Kobrin have been successful in passing the November bar examination.

Brothers Kolkey, Richman, Korman, Dorfman, Leider, Roth, and Cooke have been formally initiated into membership during the current semester.

The business of the Benjamin Chapter of Nu Beta Epsilon is proceeding, under a capable administration, with its usual smoothness. Frater Leider deserves mention for the inauguration of the latest fraternity activity—"The Benjamin Nu's," which he writes, edits and publishes to the mingled amusement and annoyance of the membership. Lou is a frank and fearless journalist.
